

We offer two tiers of service tailored to the gshp industry:

Tier 1. Industry Expert Services

Delivered by our senior team with deep field knowledge and strategic expertise.

This tier is ideal when precision, speed, and minimal oversight are required. Whether it's developing core messaging, overseeing high-value content capture, or directing technical creative, our experts operate with fluency in drilling operations, product USPs, and the nuances of the market. We remove the need for lengthy onboarding, reduce back-and-forth, and ensure everything we deliver is technically accurate, commercially relevant, and ready to perform.

Tier 2. Agency Creative Services

Project-based design and production, delivered by trusted partners and overseen by our senior team.

This tier is suited for design, editing, and content creation where strategic direction has already been set. Every output benefits from industry alignment and QA by our leadership, without requiring premium time throughout.

Rates vary depending on complexity, urgency, location, and deliverables. We quote transparently to suit each project.

Tier 1. Industry Expert Services (Day rates - 0.5 Day minimum)

- Executive Creative Director: £2,800 - £4,800/day
